R H. BATTLE JR, & W. W. JONES, Attorneys, Carriage for Sale.

——No Mayor's Court yesterday.

——Give us a rest on the election question.

——Clear as a crystal and cold as a wedge last night.

——We call attention to the sale of a fine carriage Monday.

——The long referee suit is still in progress. It's another case of Jarndyce vs Jarndyce.

——The Raleigh Light Artillery will meet on Monday night at the Mayor's office for re-organization.

——This is the kind of weather which causes mankind to form an unchangeable resolution not to wash any more till spring.

——We understand that the snow lies three inches deep on a level at Weldon, and at Macon and Warrenton nearly five inches.

——Not a sheriff settled yesterday. Thus far just one half of them have ponied up, and to-morrow is the last day provided by law

——The man Perry, who had his leg broken last Thursday evening, is still at the residence of Mr. Wiley Clifton, and is getting along remarkably well.

——The young ladies of the Raleigh Baptist Female Seminary, will give a concert next week for the entertainment of the delegates to the Grand Lodge A. F. & A M.

——Notwithstanding the pastors of both the Methodist churches are absent, services will be held in both churches to-day, as appears from our church directory

——The board of county examiners on yesterday examined J. W. Waldon, colored and refused him a certificate to teach in the common schools of the county.

——"Wanted, one tame squirrel, or a pair. Apply at this office."—Fayetteville Wide Awake. [Oh, come now, Mack; that's indecent haste, only been spliced 30 days]

——The sale of the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railroad takes place next Tuesday and its fate will be watched for with interest. The future of our North Carolina Central Railroad is so linked with it as to cause unusual interest to centre around it.

——The wind swept the streets yesterday with biting breath causing ears and noses to turn ruby red. Ladies absented themselves from the pavements, and men hurried along them with their heads buried deep in the collars of their overcoats.

——Col. Cal. Brown, of the National, fed his guests last evening on quails —a delicacy all too uncommon. Col. Brown always manages to get the best going, and the enterprise which he manifests in keeping up his table, makes his house justly popular.

——Sheriff Manning, of New Hanover, who was in the city yesterday, reports that James H. Heaton who was shot in Wilmington last Wednesday night, is fatally wounded No expectations entertained of his recovery. Heaton is quite well known in this city.

——In mentioning a bill introduced in the Senate on Friday by Senator Holt, on the question of adjournment, it was stated that the date fixed in the bill for adjournment was the 18th of December. This was a typographical error. The bill proposed to adjourn on the 16th.

——The bale of cotton which has been going the rounds of the State and which has been sold at many different places for the benefit of the orphan asylum, has just been resold in Newbern and purchased by the Masons of the Elm City for the sum of $103. A check for the amount has been forwarded.

A CAPTIVE FREE.

Opening of the Prison Doors to W. H. H. Houston.

His Excellency Gov. Brogden, on yesterday, issued a pardon to the most prominent man who has ever been confined in the State's prison—W. H. H. Houston, of Charlotte. The facts in this case became notorious at the time and are doubtless still remembered by many of the readers of the NEWS. Four years ago Houston was the leading grocery merchant in Charlotte. His establishment was the largest in the city and his business was immense. He was a man of wealth and went in style. He was a man of the kindest heart and was noted for his liberality. No beggar was ever turned empty-handed from his door, and his generosity and geniality made him as popular as he was prosperous.

But his vaulting ambition o'erleaped itself, and in his haste to get richer still, he made ventures which involved him hopelessly. With a frantic hope of extricating himself from the dilemma in which he found himself placed, he forged paper to a large amount on the banks of Charlotte, and failing to meet the notes when they fell due, found ruin staring him in the face, and fled the State. He was arrested in Canada and brought back. Giving bail, he fled again and was arrested last spring in Florida. He was convicted in Mecklenburg court at May term, 1875, of the crime of forgery, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of years. He has been in confinement there ever since, until yesterday.

Day before yesterday ex-Sheriff W. W. Grier, of Mecklenburg, came to this city, bearing petitions numerously signed by the people of Union and Mecklenburg, praying for the pardon of Houston, upon the ground of severe afflictions in his family. One of his children has just died, and his mother is lying at the point of death. The Governor heard the prayer of the petitioners, and on yesterday morning issued the pardon. Mr Grier, accompanied by ex-Governor Holden, went out to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon, and broke the joyful news to the criminal. He could not believe it at first, and later, when he began to realize that it was true, he trembled like an aspen leaf, and gave marked evidence of the contending emotions within him. He was speedily dressed in citizen's clothing, and bidding farewell to the officers of the institution, all of whom he had made his friends, he walked forth from the shadow of the penitentiary once more a free man.

We think that Gov. Brogden has done well in exercising executive clemency in this case. The people who are most interested will sustain him en masse. Houston has been punished sufficiently. "It was a grievous crime, and grievously hath he atoned for it." It can do no harm to turn loose this now thoroughly broken-spirited and penitent man, and let him go home to his severely stricken family.

Personal.

Hon. D. M. Furches, of Stateville, Judge of the 10th judicial district, is in the city. He is on his way home from one of the courts in the middle belt of counties, he having exchanged circuits with Judge Buxton.

S. J. Pemberton, Esq, of Stanly, Solicitor of the 5th judicial district, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. Edward Ransom, who has been sick for two or three days, was able to be in his seat yesterday. He was too unwell to visit the insane asylum on Thursday, in company with the other members of the committee.

Quite a number of the members of the Legislature went off home yesterday to spend Sunday.

Sale of Valuable Property.

The real estate of the late Col. Geo. Little, was sold yesterday by the trustees of the estate. The home place, city lots number 206, 207 222 and part of 223, corner Edenton and Blount streets, was sold yesterday and was purchased by Stanhope Pullen, Esq., for $12,000 cash. The property comprises three and a half acres of land, splendidly situated and the lots are among the most valuable in the city. Col. Little's plantation, 4 miles from the city, was sold at the same time, and brought $1,565, being purchased by Mr. — Howard, of Washington, N. C. The tract comprises 175 acres of land.

United States Court.

No cases at all were tried before this justice mill on yesterday. The court spent the day in taking bonds, making continuances, &c. Three cases against Wm. A. Cheatham, for having in his possession tobacco not properly stamped, were set for trial to-morrow.

The Keogh Protest—What Governor Brogden Says About It.

Yesterday morning we published a letter from T. B. Keogh, Esq., which seemed to raise an issue of veracity between himself and Gov. Brogden, and on yesterday a reporter of the NEWS called upon His Excellency for an explanation of the difference between the statements of His Excellency and Mr. Keogh. Governor Brogden says that on Friday last, the 1st inst., he received the written protest to which reference has been made, and not before that time.—The protest bore date of Greensboro Nov. 29th, and it is thought that his failure to receive it was due to the fact that the post office was closed on Thursday and the mail for the executive office was not taken out.

His Excellency says further that on Monday evening last, at a late hour, Mr. Keogh did call upon him and inform him that he would file in writing a protest against the issuance of certificates to the Democratic electors upon the ground that the returns from 23 of the counties did not bear the county seals, and upon the further ground that William B. Glenn, one of the Democratic electors is a member of the Southern Claims Commission. His Excellency says, however, that his mind having been already made up to issue the certificates to the Democratic electors, and he feeling satisfied that nothing would be presented to alter that determination, thought little or nothing more about the matter, and the threatened protest passed out of his mind His Excellency in short, regarded it as a matter of no consequence whatever, and said so yesterday in about as many words.

Married on the Wing.

The Charlotte Observer states that Miss Florence Richmond, who starred the Boyd Combination when it was in this city during fair week, was married about two weeks ago in Sumter, S. C., to Mr. W. Andrew Boyd, the manager of the company. At Sumpter Miss Richmond was taken with measles, and the case being such as to require constant nursing, it was considered that the couple and the opportunity had met, and the union was consummated accordingly. Miss Richmond is a good actress and Mr. Boyd a good fellow. We wish them much joy.

The Public Printing.

The press and people of the State cordially approve of the action of our General Assembly in awarding the public printing to the NEWS. The following is from the Tarboro Southerner, and for the kind words we sincerely thank brother Battle: "Our good friend the Raleigh NEWS obtained the State printing after a hot contest. It has won the honor and emoluments worthily and we congratulate our friends."

Work House and Jail Notes.

Ferebee Buncombe and Tabitha Bitters, colored women, in jail for fines and costs amounting to $18 in each case, have been transferred to the work house, there to do labor to the amount of their fines and costs.

Rufus Gill, colored, was released from jail yesterday, having given bond for his appearance at the next term of court. Upon being asked how he happened to be in such a place as a jail, he responded that "he believed they said it was somethin' about some meat."

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1876–'77.

SENATE.

ELEVENTH DAY.

SATURDAY, Dec. 2.

The Senate was called to order at 11 a m., Mr. President Robinson in the chair.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the city.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Senator Boddie asked and secured leave of absence for Senator Waddell.

Senator Coke asked leave of absence for Senator Mercer. Granted.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Senator Wilson, from the Committee on the Judiciary; Senator Coke, from the same; Senator Scales, from the same; Senator Dortch, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances; Senator Robins, from the Judiciary Committee; Senator Albright, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances; Senator Waddell, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills; Senator Johnston, from the Committee on Internal Improvements; Senator Johnston, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills; Senator Graham, from the Judiciary Committee; Senator Dortch, from the Judiciary Committee; Senator Folk, from the Judiciary Committee; Senator Dortch, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, all submitted reports, which went upon the calendar.

A message was received from the House, announcing the passage of certain bills, and asking concurrence.

BILLS.

By Senator Graham: An act to prescribe what bonds shall be given by the sheriffs of the State. Calendar.

By Senator Askew: A bill to repeal an act of 1873–'74, chap. 137, so far as relates to Jones county. Propositions and Grievances.

Senator Graham called up his bill regarding the bonds of sheriffs, and asked that the rules be suspended and the bill put upon its readings. [It provides that a sheriff shall give bond for the three several divisions of the tax-list which is placed in his hands, the bond in each case to be double the amount of tax to be collected.]

Senator Graham explained the bill, showing that there is now no law covering the case, and that too great latitude is given sheriffs.

The rules were, upon motion, suspended, and the bill put upon its readings.

Senator Sandifer moved an amendment that the sheriffs be allowed two weeks of grace in which to perfect their bonds.

Upon motion of Senator Graham, the bill was committed to the Judiciary Committee.

Upon motion of Senator Stanford, the bill regarding the swamps of Onslow county was referred and ordered to be printed.

Senator Latham introduced a bill to settle the ridings of the judges of the Superior Courts of the State, and moved that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee and be printed.

Senator Stickney moved to commit to the judiciary committee.

Upon motion of Senator Robins, the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Upon motion of Senator Liles, the rules were suspended and the Senate took up his bill to amend an act in regard to a change of the gauge of railroads [A substitute was reported from the committee recommending that the gauge of the Cheraw & Yadkin Railroad, to which the bill referred be allowed to be built of the desired gauge, the gauge, however, to be subject to the control of the General Assembly, to have it changed whenever it became necessary to have it conform to the gauge of other railroads in the State, and further, that the company be required to complete the road to Wadesboro within three years]

The substitute, as explained, was put upon its passage and passed its several readings, ayes 30, nays 2.

A message was received from the House announcing that it had passed a resolution to adjourn from 9 A. M. of the 13th to 12 M. of Saturday the 30th of December

Upon motion of Senator Stanford, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings, ayes 31, nays 1.

Senator Cabo moved that the rules be suspended and the Senate take up the act supplemental to a supplemental act to lay off and establish the new county of Pamlico. The rules were accordingly suspended, and the bill passed its second reading.

Upon motion of Senator Moore, of New Hanover, the rules were suspended and the bill to make Cashie river, in Bertie county, a lawful fence was taken up and passed its several readings.

Senator Stewart, who was absent on Tuesday last, was allowed to record his vote for Hon. M. W. Ransom for United States Senator.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday at 11 A. M.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 11 A. M. the House was called to order by Mr. Moring, of Chatham, Mr. Speaker Price being detained in his room by sickness.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the city.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Shackelford, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, submitted a report stating that certain bills had been correctly engrossed

By Mr. Spake: A resolution to adjourn on the 13th until the 30th of December. Calendar.

By Mr Purnell: A bill to authorize cities of 5 000 inhabitants and upwards to levy a tax for the support of graded schools therein on Education.

By Mr. McClure: road exemptions in Clay county. Committee on Post Roads, Turnpikes &c

By Mr. Bryan: A bill for the general relief of sheriffs and tax collectors. Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. Fagan: A bill to allow the Sheriff of Martin county to collect arrears of taxes for the years 1874–'75. Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. McRae: A resolution in reference to the Internal Revenue of the United States. Placed on Calendar.

CALENDAR.

The bill in reference to the incorporation of Building, Loan, Trust, &c., Companies, was taken up and, on motion of Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Spake, his resolution taking a recess from the 13th of December to the 30th of the same month, was taken up and passed its second reading.

Under a suspension of the rules the resolution to adjourn came up and passed its third reading.

The resolution was ordered to be sent to the Senate without engrossment.

The bill to prevent the burning of dwelling and other houses was taken up and, on motion of Mr. Vaughn, made special order for Thursday at 12 M.

The resolution asking our Congressmen to use their influence to procure such amendment to the law in relation to currency as to restrain National Banks from taking more than 8 per cent. interest, was taken up and passed its second reading.

Under a suspension of the rules the resolution came up on its third reading.

Mr. Houk moved to indefinitely postpone the resolution.

Mr. Vaughn, the introducer of the resolution, hoped the motion would not prevail. He thought the present usury law would be all right if its provisions could be made to apply to National Banks.

The motion to indefinitely postpone was rejected and the resolution passed its third reading.

The resolution instructing the Judiciary to investigate the Jones county pauper report was taken up.

Mr. Graves said that a bill in regard to this matter was already before the Judiciary Committee and there was no use for the resolution. He moved to indefinitely postpone.

Mr. McGehee was opposed to converting the committees of the House into inquisitorial bodies. This resolution could serve no purpose but to provoke a political debate, which would take up the time which should be given to legislation for the benefit of the people of the whole State.

The whole matter was covered by a bill now before the Judiciary Committee.

Messrs. Clarke, of Craven, Bledsoe and Lineback urged the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, said that he would not go into an investigation of all the short-comings of the Republican party unless some assurance was given that an end would be reached before Gabriel blew his horn.

Mr. McLean moved that the further consideration of the resolution be postponed until the return of Jake Scott, of Jones.

The motion was ruled out of order by the Speaker.

Mr. Davis, of Haywood, moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

On this motion the yeas and nays were called and the motion to table prevailed by a vote of yeas 61; nays 22.

The resolution requiring the State Geologist to furnish the House with an itemized statement of expenditures, was taken up.

Mr. Singeltary moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Agriculture, Mining, &c. Lost.

The resolution was adopted.

The calendar was announced as exhausted and, on motion, the House adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

GREENSBORO.

Proceedings of the Fortieth Session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, held at Greensboro, Commencing Wednesday, Nov. 29th, 1876.

[Reported for the Daily News]

THIRD DAY.

GREENSBORO, Dec. 1, 1876.

The conference opened at the regular hour, Bishop Kavanaugh in the chair. Religious exercises by Rev. P. J Carraway. Minutes of yesterday read and approved.

The credentials of W. D. Taylor, from the Northern church, were received and he recognized as an elder. Also the credentials of James H. Tart, from the Baptist Church, were received and he recognized as an elder.

Isham Cox and Allen Jay of the denomination of Friends, were introduced as fraternal messengers, Mr. Cox and Mr. Tatum making some remarks.

Rev. Dr. McFerrin, Secretary of the Missionary Society, was introduced.

A resolution receiving Messrs. Cox and Jay as fraternal messengers was passed, prefaced by some remarks by Bishop Kavanaugh

On motion, two fraternal messengers were appointed to the next yearly meeting of the Society of Friends

Rev. Mr. Lafferty, of the Virginia Conference, made some extended remarks, complimenting North Carolina institutions, and deprecating the lack of Methodist patronage in the various Virginia institutions. These remarks produced immense applause.

Candidates of the first year were called and the following were reported upon and passed to the class of second year: B R Hall, N G Whitington, J M Rhodes. J B Carpenter was continued in first year.

The class of second year was then called as follows: J W Shackford, N M Jurney, J F Craven, W S Roan, J T Gibbs, L L Nash, J W Randle, J R Scroggs, C A Gault, M W Boyles, J M Lumley, N S Norton. The class was addressed at length by the Bishop, upon the importance of personal [illegible] the high [illegible] religion, after which he propounded to them the usual questions as laid down in the discipline, patiently and clearly explaining as each question was presented.

Rev. D. A. Long, fraternal messenger from the Christian Church, was introduced and made remarks of a pleasant character.

On motion, two fraternal messengers were appointed to attend the next session of the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Conference.

Candidates of the second year were called and reported upon, and admitted to full connection, as follows: N M Jurney, J F Craven, W S Roan, J T Gibbs, L L Nash, J W Randle, C A Gault, M W Boyles, J R Scroggs, J M Lumley.

T. J Watkins, lay delegate, was granted leave of absence from to-day.

The report of Davenport Female College was read and referred to the Committee on Education.

The time of to-day's session was almost entirely occupied over the candidates for admission.

The Sunday School concert was held at the Methodist Church to-night, and an address was delivered by Dr. McFerrin, Missionary Secretary.

D. Jones invited the conference to visit Greensboro Female College this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The conference then adjourned with the benediction, until to-morrow at 9 A. M.

To-day's debates have shown the great care with which the brethren receive their new members and the love they have for their church, by the manner in which they guard her reputation.

The best criterion by which to judge as to the importance and dignity of this christian body, is to see their hundreds of ministers and laymen in annual session as they are here now. W.

Department of Agriculture at the University.

"The Committee on the part of the North Carolina Agricultural Society to confer with the Trustees and Faculty of the University in regard to the establishment of a department of Agriculture at the University, has been announced by President Holt: "Dr. Columbus Mills, of Cabarrus, Chairman; Prof. W. C. Kerr, Raleigh; Prof W. T. Walters, Wake Forest; Gen. R. F. Hoke, Raleigh, Capt. J. R. Thigpen, Tarboro; Col. L. L. Polk, Anson; Col J. M. Heck, Raleigh; and Capt. C. B. Denson, Pittsboro.

"The Committee on part of the State Grange has not been appointed. Dr. Mills is now in attendance on the annual session of the National Grange at Chicago. On his return he will give the matter prompt attention."

Two little girls and their mother, a widow, sat down to supper October 29th, 1876. This was in the village of Indiola, Pa. One of the children pulled the cloth off the table. The lighted lamp fell to the floor. Had that lamp been filled with Pratt's Astral Oil, two newly sodded graves would not to-day be seen in the village church yard. *

CIRCULATION.

THE DAILY NEWS has the largest daily circulation in the State, and over double the circulation of any other daily in Raleigh.

The combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly NEWS is nearly 5,000, and reaches more readers than any other paper in North Carolina.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Each subscriber will see plainly printed on the yellow label, on which his name is printed, the date when his subscription will expire. Subscribers desiring to renew will do so in time and avoid losing any copy of the paper. Any subscriber failing to receive a copy of his paper will confer a favor by notifying this office.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We cannot notice anonymous communications. In all cases we require the writer's name and address, not for publication, but a guarantee of good faith.

We cannot, under any circumstances, return rejected communications, nor can we undertake to preserve manuscripts.

THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

WE showed by our publication a few mornings since that the vote in 91 counties was 122,648 for Judge Fowle, after making corrections for Walnut Grove precinct. Since then Bladen and Tyrrell have been heard from, the former giving 1,407 the latter 553. Estimating Pasquotank, which has not been heard from, at 846, the vote Vance received, Judge Fowle's majority will reach 125,455, the largest ever cast for any person in this State.

YESTERDAY we mentioned the fact that one of the arguments used in Surry county, during the recent campaign, in favor of the constitutional amendments, was that they would rotate the Judges, and thus the people of that section would occasionally rid themselves of Judge Cloud. While admitting that this argument was perhaps used, J. F. Graves, Esq, the present able member of the House from Surry, requests us to say that it was not made use of by him. He and Judge Cloud have borne friendly relations to each other, and he does not wish to be placed in antagonism to His Honor in this case. Our remarks of yesterday were not intended to implicate Mr. Graves, and we cheerfully make the disclaimer as to him.

A SUGGESTION FOR TILDEN.

The writer in the Burke Blade presents the name of Daniel G. Fowle for Attorney-General of the United States, in the following communication:

> If Gov. Tilden is to be our next President we have been lead to believe that there would be a return to the old customs, which characterized our government, when the humblest citizen in the land could lay complaint or make suggestion to the President. With this belief I desire space enough in your columns to call attention to the fitness of having the South represented in the Tilden Cabinet, of the claim which North Carolina by her peculiar position has to name the man, and lastly of the advantage gained to us as a State in placing Fowle forward in a representative capacity.
>
> Gov. Tilden is a man of too much discernment not to see that the "Solid South" while careful to give no offence to the over sensitive North, will yet expect one Cabinet position out of seven and he will also see that the Old North State is the only Southern commonwealth in which he can enjoy the advantage of selection. Presuming he would select an original unionist, other things being equal, and further that the War, Navy, Treasury and State departments would certainly be in Northern hands; why not place the law department in the hands of our own brilliant Fowle?
> Vance is Governor, Ransom is Senator; we insist that Fowle should be Attorney General.

This suggestion will meet with general approval. Judge Fowle is worthy of the highest honors in the gift of a Democratic President. His singularly effective canvass as Elector-at Large in the grand contest just closed so gloriously to North Carolina, established him high up in the admiration, confidence and esteem of the people. He won a most enviable reputation for thrilling eloquence and fervid patriotism.

Judge Fowle is a lawyer of a high order of genius and learning. His long and successful practice at the bar of Raleigh has fitted him for the most exalted judicial positions. None can deny that he would be a safe legal adviser at Washington, and would adorn the office of Attorney General.

North Carolina will be entitled to representation in the Cabinet, should Tilden be seated in the Presidential chair. Among the various names which could be presented to Tilden in connection with cabinet appointments, none would be more deserv- g of consideration than that of dge Fowle.

THE PALMETTO STATE.

Within the past few days affairs have taken a more favorable turn in South Carolina. First, all danger of a collision between the citizens and the soldiers, or between the two parties in the General Assembly, or between the races—has passed. That is a phase of the imbroglio which will relieve in a great measure the anxiety of the country. A conflict at Columbia, and bloodshed, would have been followed by the most dire consequences. No one is wise enough to say where the flame thus kindled would have ended.

Perfect good humor, it was said on yesterday, prevailed between the two parties. There had been no act of violence, no resistance to any constituted authorities, and no angry scenes, even. Since the first day, the whites have, through their policy of peace above all things, gradually gained in strength, and without a blow or a harsh word, secured advantage after advantage over their desperate and misguided opponents; until to-day, the indications are that enough Republicans will abandon the Bayonet House to defeat even the semblance of a quorum, and, joining the constitutional body, give to it a legal quorum, beyond all cavil—a quorum that even the military must recognize as beyond dispute.

The negro Hamilton, a member of the Bayonet House, led the way when he withdrew from that body and joined the Democratic House. He indicated in a brief but powerful speech, the course that all honest or well-meaning Republicans should pursue, in order to end the difficulties into which they have become involved. He said that he could not stand to see all law stricken down in the effort to preserve his party. He acknowledged that the Republican House was not legal; that it had no quorum when adjourned; that laws made by it would be void, and there would be no protection for life or property if the laws were thus to be overridden, and that the safety of Republican institutions, and the peace of the country demanded that the Chamberlain party and the military bow to the judgment of the Supreme Court.

Since the leading negro has taken this step, the probable solution of the difficulty is not wrapped up in so much uncertainty as heretofore. Enough Republicans will join the Constitutional House to destroy even the pretext of an organization on the part of the minority; and then these alternatives will be presented to the Radicals: A compromise, in which the Democrats are guaranteed all the rights claimed, or a complete severance of both the House and Senate, and the establishment of a new government.

General Ruger's apologetic letter to General Sherman indicates that there will be no further military interference, beyond the preservation of the public peace. Ruger makes a lame effort to excuse his tyrannical conduct on Tuesday. He put his foot into it, by order of Grant, and now to save his honor as a soldier and shield the occupant of the White House against impeachment, if possible, he seeks by some clever and dexterous lying to extricate himself. There can hardly be a doubt now that he will keep hands off, and let the General Assembly work out its own salvation in its own way. That is all the Democratic members of that body ask; and we may not be surprised at any time to hear that the whole matter has been settled by the Republicans yielding to the Democrats all the rights which they claim. That would be followed by the inauguration of Hampton. On the other hand, if the Republicans hold out in the illegal and revolutionary course which they have begun, the result will be two Legislatures, two Governors, and two sets of State officers.

HAYES AND INAUGURATION.

It is distinctly and unequivocally stated by the Washington correspondents of various newspapers of the North that Grant entertains the theory of the Republican party, and will go ahead in the face of the Democratic protest, to inaugurate Hayes. It is well for us to realise this fully, and give it all due consideration.

The theory, as understood in Washington, is simply this: That if the Returning Boards of Louisiana and Florida (South Carolina seems out of the way now) declare that Hayes is entitled, by virtue of the election on the 7th inst., to the electoral votes of those States, and he appears thus to have 185 votes, he is elected beyond question or quibble, and no unlawful act can overthrow the decision, while no unlawful act will be permitted to do so; that, in counting the votes in February, neither House of Congress, the Vice-President, nor any other organization or official on earth, has power to change, throw out, or in any manner interfere with the returns certified up from the States to the Vice-President; that an attempt to throw out any of these returns, to disregard them or the verdict they give, will be revolutionary, to be met and defeated by any means that may be found necessary.

To sustain this theory it is avowed that Grant stands committed. This gives us more distinct conceptions of the great danger which now threatens the very existence of our constitutional form of government. We are standing on a vol but the uprising of the honest Republican masses in the North, in denunciation of the Returning Boards, can save the Republic.

PERSONAL.

Senator Bayard has eleven children.

Thomas Keogh is a native of Michigan.

General Toombs offers to bet $10,000 that Tilden will be inaugurated.

The credit of maintaining the peace at Columbia was due to General Aampton.

Ex-Treasure Spinner says that there will be trouble before this affair is over, and that he is not too old to shoulder a musket.

Charlotte Observer: Platt D. Walker Esq., of Richmond county has come here to practice the profession of law and has formed a legal partnership with Maj. C. Dowd, of this city.

That most generous of men, Mr. W. W. Corcoran of Washington has given the University of Virginia $50,000 to endow the schools of History, Literature and Moral Philosophy.

The lower part of Mr Milton Sayler's face is buried in an iron-gray beard and moustache. He has a wide, prominent forehead, and a pair of handsome gray eyes which twinkle with good nature. He is scholarly, but exceedingly lazy, his friends say that the only reason he has not married is because he has always been too lazy to propose. All this is confided to the world by a correspondent of the Philadelphia Times.

Charlotte Observer: A gentleman just from Columbia, says that he was present when the habeas corpus case of the contemptuous State board of canvassers was called. Settle got up and said he had a few remarks to make in their defence; also, in behalf of granting them further time in which to answer. He was replied to by Gen James Conner of Charleston, and our informant added, "when Conner got through with him, Settle's face was red as the gills of the maddest old turkey gobbler you ever saw."

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Herald felicitates the country that the point of danger is passed.

The partisan might as well take a back seat. The situatlin has become too serious for him to grapple.

The only thing a conscientious Republican could do yesterday morning, was to take a long look at South Carolina, another at Louisiana and then mount the fence.

If all the leaders of the Democratic party would behave with so much good sense as Gen. Wade Hampton does they would command a good deal more of public confidence and sympathy than they do at present. His bearing and language at Columbia on Tuesday were those of a true man and patriot.

Mr. E. W. Stoughton has made a valuable addition to the current literature of the bar. He calls breaking open a package of election returns and smuggling a false and fraudulent affidavit in among them, and then closing the package with plenty of sealing wax and red tape, "a clerical error."

New York Sun: As Boss Tweed looks out from his jail window, how he must regret that he does not belong to the Grant Cameron Ring, so that he could have a Federal Judge and a couple of regiments of Federal troops sent to release him in defiance of the mandate of the State Court that put him in prison.

GENERAL NOTES.

A movement is on foot in South Carolina for the ladies to make a contribution of one dollar each to purchase a house for Governor-elect Hampton.

Hereafter in Virginia there will be biennial instead of annual sessions of the Legislature, and to vote, one must first pay his poll tax, and if he steals never so little and is convicted, he is disfranchised.

A writer in the New York Sun says Southern merchants, since the war have not been large buyers, but their credit has been good, so good in fact, that after the war they went East, and almost without means, bought all the goods they wanted.

Chinamen with white wives are common in this city, but in San Francisco, owing to violent hatred of the Chinese, the first marriage of that kind greatly excited the public. The husband is the wealthy agent of a chinese company, and the wife is a teacher in the city mission.—Ex.

In London military circles it is rumored that 30,000 French volunteers will join the British arm in case of war with Russia, tempted by the bounty and the pay. A recruiting office is said to have been opened at St. Heller in the Island of Jersey, which has already enlisted a considerable number. It is thought that the French Government may endeavor to interfere in the matter with a view of preserving its obligations of neutrality.

GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY,
RALEIGH, Nov. 13th, 1876.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, will commence its 90th Annual Communication at the Masonic Hall, Fisher Building, in this city, on Tuesday, 5th of December next, at 7 o'clock P. M.

Return tickets can be obtained by officers and representatives on application there for over the following named railroads, &c., at the rates mentioned:

Western North Carolina, Seaboard & Roanoke, Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio, Western (from Fayetteville) and Dismal Swamp Canal, on the payment of one first class fare, and over the following roads at six cents per mile for the round trip: Raleigh & Gaston; Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, Wilmington & Weldon, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta, and Richmond & Danville, North Carolina Division.

The Grand Secretary's certificate of attendance will entitle officers and representatives to return free over the following roads: Carolina Central Railway, and Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

It is specially suggested that return tickets over all the routes mentioned except the three last, are necessary to prevent the payment of full fare.

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

THE DANGER WHICH OVERHANGS THE REPUBLIC.

Self-Government Resting Under a Deadly Incubus--Trade and Commerce Chilled--The Opinion of Upright Republicans.

[Journal of Commerce.]

The danger is most imminent. We do not refer now to the danger of rebellion, or revolution, or anarchy, or even of an unrighteous conclusion as to the result of the recent election. After all legal remedies have been exhausted we should counsel submission to far greater wrongs than the defeat of the people's will by unscrupulous canvassers and dishonest returning boards, rather than see a single sword unsheated in civil strife. Nothing can justify fratricidal war but the infliction of an outrage which is more intolerable than death. The trouble now upon us is the fruit of the unsettled condition of political affairs, and it is one which, if not soon arrested, will be past all remedy, no matter who shall sit in the Presidential chair.

Trade and commerce have felt the chill through all their veins, and the whole system is fast becoming paralyzed. At wholesale or retail, in store or factory or shop, all business is at a stand, or rapidly reaching this conclusion. The next step, if the wheels are not soon in motion, will be a widespread financial panic, touching every material interest, and sooner or later reaching with its gaunt skeleton fingers every home in the land.

No man with the incubus of this public restlessness upon him can embark in any serious enterprise with hope of profit. Negotiations for new firms or partnerships are suspended; many engagements not yet ratified have been cancelled; and no one, unless it is the professional politician, can look into the future near or remote, without a strange mis-giving as to what it has in store for him.

If the policy upon which certain unscrupulous political leaders seem to have settled is adopted without check from those to whom they look for support, we see no hope of improvement in the three months to come. Nor even then, though the crisis may be peacefully past, and the new Administration be accepted as the ruling Government, will there be any lifting of the horrible weight from the public mind Whether right or wrong, the feeling will be cherished by more than half the legal voters of the country that they have been cheated out of a party triumph, and that power has not scrupled to perpetuate itself by an armed hand against the popular will, thus overthrowing the very foundation of a free Government.

From all that we can gather by personal intercourse with the strong and upright men of the Republican party, we can safely affirm that it is their private conviction Mr. Tilden was fairly elected and is entitled to the office. They are not willing to be held responsible for a contrary result, and yet they must see that if they sit still, the manipulations of those who have assumed control of the machinery will fasten the odium of defeating him upon the organization to which they belong.

The merchants, bankers, and men of business in this metropolis who have lent their aid to the dominant party, and have been more or less identified with it, cannot evade the responsibility which is thrust upon them by these passing events. If they neglect the duty of the hour, they cannot hope to escape from the disastrous result.

POLITICS AND RELIGION.

Dewitt Talmage on the Situation--Wade Hampton's Letter--"The Voice and Hand of God Helping us in 1876."

We ought to show our gratitude to God for the equipose of the nation. Behold the most sublime spectacle on earth--two political parties, after a long and tremendous contest, standing in orderly silence, waiting for the clear and distinct enunciation of the ballot box. No riots in the streets. For less cause in other years our cities have been sprinkled with violence. The political party in South Carolina, rejected by the party opposing, instead of trying to raise up strife, call upon their constituents to leave it to the higher tribunals of the State and nation. [Applause.] I know of no more admirable document than that of Wade Hampton. It is the voice and hand of God helping us in 1876 as he delivered us in 1776. He is not worn out with our illdoings and ingratitude. There will be no civil war, and no deed of any contest. Woe be to the man who dares propose it! He will wish he had never been born. [Applause.] Where is the monster that will, by pen or tongue strive to raise strife? May his lips turn white with eternal leprosy! No; the people are determined to find out what is right. Though this question may be unsettled for weeks and months, when it is settled the people will be pleased as they were on the inauguration of James Madison, John Adams, or George Washington God has not brought us out of Egypt to leave us in the wilderness.

We must not attempt any rash experiments When there is any trouble in this nation there is a great change demanded. If the ballot box is not satisfactory, the cry is, 'Let's have a monarchy." If the electoral vote is unsatisfactory, up comes the cry. "Abolish the electorial college." Let us remember that this system was established by the grandest statesmen this country ever produced --Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson. Beware how you touch it! It will be found out that the founders of this United States Government were inspired to launch a great nation for many centuries. When you and I are dead, in the far distant Decembers of far distant years, the electors of North, South, East and West will march to Washington side by side for the great duties of the electoral college. What has taken place during the century? Two wars; the death of three Presidents--one massacred--eight financial panics; and the quadrupling of the national domain, until the original thirteen States, trembling at the howling of foreign wolves, has become a nation, and taken possession of the continent from ocean to ocean; so that the Atlantic in the morning wakes up the nation with the laughter of its waves, and the Pacific in the evening hushes it to sleep with the lullaby of its billows. [Applause.]

I charge you that you make this nation the burden of your prayers. From 1861 to 1864 everybody prayed for the United States. If a pastor neglected to do it, the congregation indignantly closed their hymn books and left never again to return. We need prayer as much to day as in the dark days of 1862. What we want is the law of God brought to bear in New Orleans, Charleston and Tallahasse, and that will decide the matter, and right it forever.--God save the United States of America!

A Remarkable Professional Success.

[Missouri (St. Louis) Republican.]

Among the notable professional men of this country who have achieved extraordinary success is Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. The prominence which he has attained has been reached through strictly legitimate means, and, so far therefore, he deserves the enviable reputation which he enjoys. This large measure of success is the result of a thorough and careful preparation for his calling, and extensive reading during a long and unusually large practice, which have enabled him to gain high commendation, even from his professional brethren. Devoting his attention to certain specialties of the science he has so carefully investigated, he has been rewarded in a remarkable degree. In these specialties, he has become a recognized leader. Not a few of the remedies prescribed by him have, it is said, been adopted and prescribed by physicians in their private practice. His pamphlets and larger works have been received as useful contributions to medical knowledge. He has recently added another, and perhaps more important work, because of more general application, to the of his published writings. This book, entitled "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," is designed to enter into general circulation. Dr. Pierce has received acknowledgment and honors from many sources, and especially scientific degrees from two of the first medical institutions in the land.

LEGAL NOTICES.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the power and authority contained in that certain deed of trust, bearing date the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy, and made by and between the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company of the one part, and R A Lancaster, W. K. Easley and Alfred Austell of the other part, and in compliance with the directions in that behalf contained in the decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, made at October Term, 1875, in a certain suit in equity therein pending, in which Skipwith Wilmer and Auguste Richardson complainants, and the Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway company and others are defendants (and in and by which decree the undersigned John H. Fisher was appointed a trustee under the said deed of trust in the place of the said W. K. Easley who was deceased, and with all of the rights, power and authority under the said deed of trust which were possessed by the said W. K. Easley in his lifetime), and in compliance also with the decrees of the Circuit Courts of the United States for the District of South Carolina and of the Western District of North Carolina, confirming the said decree made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia: We, the undersigned, will on the fifth day of December next between the legal hours of sale, to wit ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. on that day, in front of the county Court House of Fulton county, in the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, sell at public auction, the entire railway of the said The Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company extending from the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, to the city of Charlotte in the State of North Carolina together with all its franchises lands, buildings, machinery, rolling stock, materials, and other property, real and personal, wherever situated and in whatsoever manner held, and whether owned and held by the said company at the time of the date of the said deed of trust, or thereafter acquired.

The terms of such sale shall be as follows:

1st. The premises will be sold in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash

2d. Ten per cent. of the purchase money of the said premises will be required to be paid to the undersigned trustees at the time and place of sale and immediately after the premises shall be struck down, and the purchaser will be required at the same time to sign a memorandum of his purchase.

3 The residue of such purchase money will be required to be paid to the said trustees at the office of John H. Fisher, as receiver of the said railway, in the city of Atlanta on or before the twenty sixth day of December next, when and where the deed of the undersigned, for the said premises will be ready for delivery.

4th The biddings will be kept open after the premises shall be struck down, and in case any purchaser shall fail to comply with any of the terms of sale, the premises struck down to him will be again put up for sale upon the same terms of sale Provided, however, that if the holders of any of the four thousand two hundred and forty-eight bonds, secured by the said deed of trust, should, at the sale become the purchasers of the said premises, it shall not be necessary for them to pay the purchase money therefor, so far as concerns the proportion thereof, which, as such bondholders, they would be entitled to receive if the net amount of such purchase money were distributed pro rata equally among all of the holders of the said four thousand two hundred and forty eight bonds; but, that in such case, the bonds held by them, with the coupons annexed thereto, shall be brought into the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, and the sale to them will be reported to the said court by the undersigned, and a conveyance to them to such bondholders will be withheld until the said Court shall give directions in relation to the disposition to be made of the proceeds of such sale.

More Encouraging Prospects---The South Carolinians to be Allowed to Settle Their Own Affairs---Both Houses Still in Session--Republican Members Joining the Democrats--Statement from Hampton and Gordon--What Grant Thinks About It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The Democrats this morning consider the situation more encouraging. It seems certain that South Carolina will be allowed to solve her domestic problem without further interference from the military than may be necessary to preserve the peace. This state of affairs has been brought about by the action of Mr. Fish and other more moderate leaders.

The following are published this morning.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov 30.

His Excellency, U. S. Grant, Washington:

The Democratic members of the lower House, sixty-five in number, met quietly in the hall to-day with their Speaker in the chair. The Republicans, fifty-nine in number, also assembled there and placed their Speaker on the desk. General Ruger proposes to take out of the House eight members duly elected, holding certificates from the Supreme Court. The House is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members. We propose to leave the question to the House. These members will remain until expelled by force, but we earnestly desire a peaceful solution. The Legislature will not interfere with the Presidential electoral vote. We ask only a constitutional Legislature, peaceably assembled for the good of the State.

Very respectfully,
WADE HAMPTON.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 1.

Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, Washington, D. C.:

Have the President, Secretary and Cabinet waited on immediately by our friends. Let them state that absolute peace prevails here and in the House where both bodies are in session. If Ruger interferes it will be without the shadow of an excuse.—The Republicans are expressing on the floor of the House their disgust with the revolutionary proceedings of their party, and joining us. Press these points and let the country know the real situation.

J. B. GORDON.
WADE HAMPTON.

In publishing these dispatches the Republican says in double leads: "The President in conversation yesterday evening with a representative of the Republican, referring to the statement made by Senator Gordon and Wade Hampton, wherein they charge that Gen. Ruger had made pledges to them in regard to the noninterference of the military with the meeting of the South Carolina Legislature, which he had failed to keep, said he was satisfied Gen. Ruger had done no such thing. He knew the General well. He was a gallant soldier, a high-toned, honorable man, and would scorn to do a mean act under any circumstances. In regard to the oft-repeated charge that the administration had used the military to interfere in the affairs of the Southern States to an extent not warranted by law, the President said the charge was not sustained by the facts. The commanding officers at all military posts at the South were at all times instructed simply to sustain the legally constituted authorities and preserve the peace. Where the military had gone further, it had been clearly shown to be a misconception of orders, and the act has been promptly disavowed by superior authority. In regard to the interference in elections, there is not a single instance on record where the presence of the military intimidated a single voter; on the contrary it had been clearly shown that both in South Carolina and Louisiana the presence of the military enabled all the colored people who wished to do so to vote the Democratic ticket. The President has no doubt but what all the questions growing out of the Presidential contest will be peacefully adjusted and that the counsels of the good and patriotic men in both parties will prevail

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Upon receipt of the dispatch from Senator Gordon and General Hampton, Mr. Lamar showed it to Secretary Fish, who informed him that orders to that effect had already been sent.

FOREIGN.

Pardon of Communists--Inundation in Turkey--War Between Turkey and Russia Regarded as Inevitable--Gen. Tcherneyeff at Pesth.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—An official decree has been published commuting or reducing the sentences of one hundred and seven Communists Several have been granted full pardons.

LONDON, Dec 2.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the News says an inundation has occurred at Adrian, by which thousands of houses were swept away.

A special dispatch to the News, from Vienna, says the commanders of four Russian mobilized army corps have arrived at Kicheneff.

The Opinion (newspaper), of Rome, says the Marquis of Salisbury's declarations exclude the idea of England's going to war with Russia, but it regards war between Russia and Turkey as inevitable.

The Times to-day in its financial article, remarks that a similar impression was almost universal on the London stock exchange yesterday.

A special dispatch to the Standard, from Pesth, announces the arrival there of General Tcherneyeff.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

Proceedings of the French Assembly.

VERSAILLES, Dec. 2.—The government to-day formally gave notice in the Chamber of Deputies of the withdrawal of the bill on the burial of members of the Legion of Honor. The House by a vote of 370 to 25 passed an order of the day, which was accepted by the government, expressing confidence that in future the government will, in regard to this matter, respect liberty of conscience and equality of all citizens.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Loans decrease ⅝ million; specie increase ⅜ million; legal tenders decrease 2⅝ million; deposits decrease 2⅝ million; reserve decrease 1⅞ million.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Democrats Cheerful--Two Republicans Join Them, and Others Expected---Mandamus on Mackey to Make Him Deliver Returns--Quo Warranto on the Hayes Electors--Mackey Threatens to Unseat the Edgefield Men.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 2.—The situation is perceptibly unchanged. The Democratic and Republican Legislatures have occupied the House of Representatives since November 30th. Both are working to secure the advantage. The Democrats are cheerful, but it is easy to discover their anxiety. The Republicans are all colored except four, nearly all are strangers, and appreciate the honor. They will likely hold out several days.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 2, 4:30 P. M.—Two of the most prominent Republican members, colored—Myers and Hamilton, of Beaufort—have just deserted Mackey's side of the House and been sworn in by the Democratic Speaker, Wallace. Others are expected this evening. Both Houses are still in session. The Republicans are straining every nerve to save themselves. The Democrats are more cheerful. No interference yet.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 2.—A motion was made to-day in the Supreme Court in behalf of Wallace, the Speaker of the Democratic House, for a mandamus on Mackey, Speaker of the Republican House, to compel him to deliver the returns for Governor in Mackey's possession to Wallace as the legal Speaker of the legal House, also a motion for a quo warranto on the Hayes electors, both cases to be heard Monday. Mackey, in the House this evening, told Wallace that he intended to remove the Edgefield men with State constables. Wallace said the House is the only conservatier of its own member, and could not legally be interfered with by constables or any outside force. He would resist them with all the power at his command, and not yield except to the United States troops under General Ruger. Matters are approaching a crisis. If Ruger sustains Mackey, the Democrats will be expelled. If he declines to do so, they will remain.

WASHINGTON.

Randall Nominated for Speaker--The whole Cabinet Opposes Ruger's Interference in the South Carolina Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—In caucus Randall beat Cox 10 votes for speaker. Only two candidates were run.

The Times' Washington dispatch says: "Speaking of the cabinet meeting yesterday, it is known sufficiently well that some of the cabinet were in favor of the ejection of the Democratic mass meeting from the legislative hall in Columbia by the use of military powers. The views of Secretary Fish became public two years ago when the military interfered in the organization of the Louisiana Legislature. He has not changed his mind since then and necessarily opposes active federal interference. Now Mr. Fish is not alone in the cabinet in the position which he occupies. It was agreed on all hands that Gen. Ruger should do nothing but see that no violence is used and permit no rioting. There is a feeling among both Democrats and Republicans that the solution of the difficulty will be found among the immediate parties to the dispute."

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—For the South Atlantic States, northerly to westerly winds, clear or fair weather, slight changes in temperature and rising barometer.

From the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, Md: For invalids and those in delicate health, we know nothing better than Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator. We recommend it from personal knowledge as carefully prepared and being all it claims.

Strong Nerves an Attainable Blessing.

There are many who have never known the blessing of strong nerves, having been born with weak ones Those who have, and through disease or some other cause, have suffered a loss of nerve power, can, by contrast, more fully appreciate the magnitude of that loss The true way to repair it is to invigorate the system through the medium of improved digestion, secretion, and the establishment of a regular habit of body, three results invariably accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters which insures the thorough conversion of the food into pure, nourishing blood, from which the nerves, in common with every other part of the bodily economy gather vigor, the grand prerequisite of health The great objection to sedatives and narcotics is that they not only exert no tonic influence, but are always followed by hurtful reaction. Such is far from being the case with the Bitters, the primary action of which is most salutary, and whose after effects are beneficial in the extreme.
